

Press Release

Released: 24 September, 2007

Bible Society NSW signs up with Firepower Sydney Kings for great youth night

Bible Society NSW, Athletes in Action and the Firepower Sydney Kings have teamed up for a special event aimed at church groups and high schools on Saturday, October 6th at 7.30pm at the Sydney Entertainment Centre.

For the special price of $5, spectators will cheer the Kings as they play the Cairns Taipans, meet Kings captain Jason Smith and other top Australian athletes after the game and hear them share their faith in Christ.

For tickets and more information, visit the Bible Society NSW web site; www.biblesocietynsw.com.au, contact Mark Brown on 0417 467 076 or via e-mail: mbrown@biblesociety.com.au or Millie Sharp on msharp@biblesocietynsw.com.au

We will mail you a collection spreadsheet and all you need to promote the event to your church or school.
Then ...

- Promote the event through your school/church
- Set up a ticket payment/collection point (school or church office)
- Either book a bus or encourage everyone to make their own way there on the night.
- A week before the game Bible Society NSW will contact you and organise to have the tickets sent out for distribution.

For more information:

Mark Brown – Bible Society NSW
02 9888 6588, 0417 467 076
mbrown@biblesociety.com.au
www.sydneykings.com.au